The Milford Bank Elects Trustee

Milford, CT, May 7, 2009 – Robert V. Macklin, President and CEO of The Milford Bank today announced that Carol McInnis has been elected to the Bank’s Board of Trustees.

Mrs. McInnis is currently President of The McInnis Companies. She founded C.A. McInnis and Associates in 1989, an Executive Search firm specializing in Clinical Research and Scientific Professionals. With Clients’ increasing demand for additional specialization and a contingency workforce, the organization grew with the incorporation of McInnis Contract Services and McInnis Managed Staffing in 1999. In 2004, Mrs. McInnis purchased Advanced Placement, an established employment firm in downtown Milford. The McInnis Companies now offer a full range of services applying their expertise to direct hire, temporary, and contract staffing in nearly every market segment.

Mrs. McInnis is a Certified Personnel Consultant, an active member of The Women Presidents’ Educational Organization / WBENC, Milford Rotary, The Milford Chamber of Commerce, The Downtown Milford Business Association, corporator for Milford Hospital and a former board member for VNA of New Haven. She was educated at Chandler School for Women, Boston MA and New Haven University.

Macklin stated, “Carol is a welcome addition to the Bank’s Board of Trustees. Her professional experience as well as her involvement in the Milford community makes her an asset to the Board of Trustees.”

The Milford Bank was founded in 1872 as a mutual institution and currently has total assets of approximately $335 million. The Bank has five full service offices in Milford and Stratford, Connecticut and a loan production office in New Haven, Connecticut.
